

JUMPS FROM CAR IS IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. W. H. Goff Suffers
Scalp Wounds and Concussions; Find Husband.

Mrs. W. H. Goff, 515 East San Antonio street, who was picked up on the road at a point between Anthony and Canutillo Friday evening in unconscious condition, and who was found by Dr. John Hardy, police surgeon, to be suffering from scalp wounds and concussion of the brain, is in a much better condition, according to a report from Hotel Eden, where she was taken after the accident.

Mrs. Goff received her injuries, it is said, by jumping from an automobile in which she was riding with her husband, when he lost control of the steering apparatus. The explanation given of her act was that Mr. Goff was overcome by a sudden epileptic attack, it was reported, to heart trouble.

Goff Brought From Anthony.
For about 15 hours after Mrs. Goff was found, it was not known where she had become of. Mr. Goff, J. B. Johnson, of the El Paso Auto Livery company, 115 West San Antonio street, who was out hunting with J. V. Frasier, Guy Williams and Jack Deacon, saw Mr. Goff sitting alone in his machine beside the roadside between 4:30 and 5 o'clock Friday afternoon. Later, his machine was seen hanging off the edge of the road empty, but practically undamaged. Saturday morning, Goff appeared in Anthony, and was taken charge of by deputy sheriff Joe Spicy, who brought him to El Paso and to his home at noon. He was uninjured.

BREAKS SHOW CASE, GRABS HATS, DROPS TWO; RUNS

About 15 men's hats disappeared from a glass case in front of the Hotel Eden, corner Main and Colorado streets, when a Ford car with a ton marked "cleaning and pressing" stopped in front of the hotel Friday evening, and a man jumped out, smashed the glass and made off with the hats, not, however, without dropping two of the hats.

Two officers arrested Vicente Galvan, a Mexican, who claimed to have no connection with the man in the car. He is being held.

FOUR FIREMEN OVERCOME IN FILM EXCHANGE FIRE

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 17.—Four firemen were overcome and a number of girls employed there, three of whom had narrow escapes from injury, in a fire that swept through the fifth floor of a picture film exchange building in the downtown district.

The offices and storerooms of the General Film company and Vitaphone company were destroyed. The loss is estimated at between $400,000 and $500,000.

PRaises LOCAL Masons' Work

Grand Master Ray, Witnesses S. E. M. Degree and Guest at Supper.

Local Freemasons of the cryptic rite were praised for their exemplification of the superexcellent Master's degree by the grand master of the grand council of Texas, John J. Ray, of Fort Worth, who witnessed the conferring of the degree upon 25 candidates Friday night in Masonic temple. Mr. Ray, after being received with honors upon his first official visit, perhaps the first time a grand council officer has inspected the work of El Paso council No. 36, Royal and Select Masters, was the guest of honor at the cryptic supper which followed the completion of the degree. His long connection with Masonic affairs in Texas and his forceful words to the craftsmen assembled were two items that greatly impressed the meeting.

Third Time for El Paso.
Spitting dramatic effect characterized the presentation of the three degrees of the degree 33 was the third time the work had been held here, and the fifth in all Texas. There were 50 members in the audience, besides the candidates and the candidates' wives, music by the organist, W. H. Taylor, was a pleasing feature. Grand master Ray was escorted to his seat after the council was called to order, following his presentation by the district grand master, R. E. McClinton, who delivered the lecture to the degree.

Guests From Three in Year.
At the supper table, supplied by the women of the El Paso chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Mrs. Roy H. Harrison, president of the chapter, and Mrs. R. E. McClinton, district grand master, were the guests of honor. Mr. Ray, who was in Texas for the first time, was the first of three grand masters to visit El Paso in the last year. He was the first of three grand masters to visit El Paso in the last year. He was the first of three grand masters to visit El Paso in the last year.

ROSWELL CADETS DEFEAT
THE AGGIES BY 46 TO 6
Roswell, N. M., Nov. 17.—The New Mexico Military Institute football team yesterday defeated a strong team from the New Mexico A. and M. college by a score of 46 to 6. The institute, from the very first, showed their superiority. The institute's goal was never in danger except one time.

LYONS'S WIDOW IS A WITNESS

Identifies Felix Jones as Man Who Discussed Cattle Deal at Gila.

Mrs. Ida R. Lyons, widow of Thomas Lyons, Silver City, N. M., the wealthy cattleman whose body was found in a ravine in Altura addition east of Highland park here May 18 last, was a witness Saturday morning at the habeas corpus hearing of Felix R. Jones, indicted for murder and for robbery in connection with Mr. Lyons' death. Mrs. Lyons testified that a man who gave his name as Lawson, but who was Jones, the witness identified him in the courtroom, called at her husband's Gila ranch May 12 and discussed a cattle deal.

Sheriff Seth R. Orndorff, Justice J. M. Deaver and deputy sheriff J. F. Tracy were witnesses Saturday morning, each describing Mr. Lyons' wounds. Sheriff Orndorff said a piece of the man's skull was found on the right side of the road near the Lyons' ranch. There was a wound over the right eye and one at the back of the head. Witness thought an iron bar, previously introduced in evidence, might have caused the wounds.

Says Wound in Back of Head.
Justice Deaver said the "skull" was crushed, the bone was crushed and there were blood spots on his cheek. These might have been caused, the witness said, by the throwing of Mr. Lyons from the cliff into the ravine. There was also a wound at the back of the head.

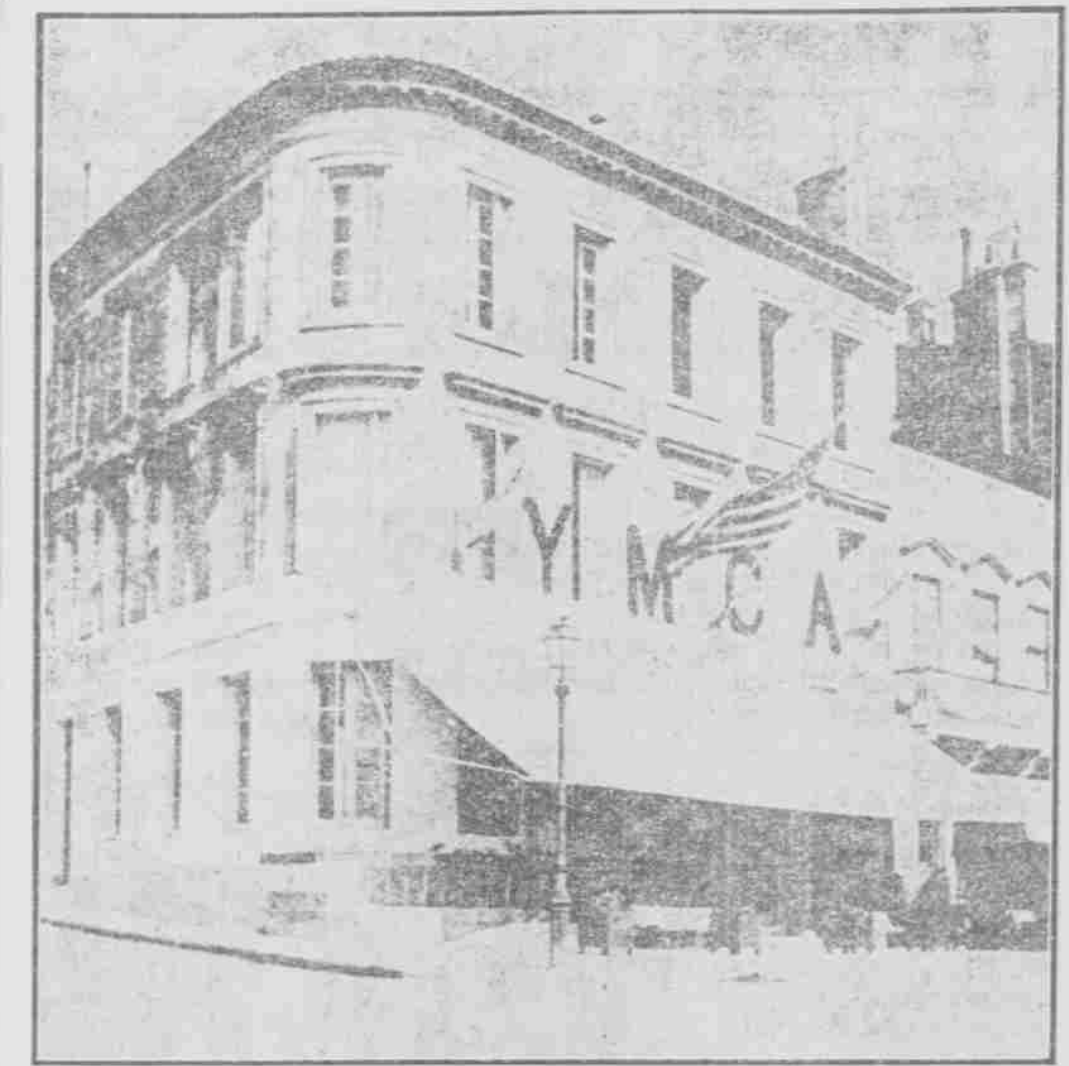

Deputy Pinley corroborated statements of other witnesses that there were blood spots at the scene of the killing of the body.

Chris, Walter, Wiley, Testify.
M. G. Chris testified to finding the iron bar near the scene of the alleged killing. He identified the bar and had previously been introduced in evidence. At this point, attorneys agreed that the body of Thomas Lyons had been found at a point four miles from the Lyons' ranch.

Dr. W. W. Walle testified he had examined an automobile at the residence of sheriff Seth R. Orndorff and had found blood stains on the curtain. John M. Wiley, of Silver City, testified he rode with Mr. Lyons on a train May 17 to El Paso, where a stranger met the train, saying, "I've been looking for you." The stranger and Lyons left together, he said. The general appearance of the stranger was that of Jones, witness said.

BIG RALLIES AT THE 'Y' SUNDAY

Meeting for Boys and Men; Sammies' Sisters
Will Be Heard.

A big day has been planned for both men and boys at the El Paso central Y. M. C. A., corner of North Oregon and West Missouri streets. The El Paso high school boys' patriotic meeting will take place at 3 o'clock. This meeting will be in charge of Chas. Brown, the local boys' work director, and Mr. Brown says that it promises to be the biggest boys' meeting ever held in El Paso.

The "Sammies' Sisters," the girl buglers, will entertain the boys with a variety of music. These young women, accompanied by their mothers, have traveled over America, winning first prizes by their ability. They are touring the camps throughout the country under the auspices of the national war work committee of the Y. M. C. A. and are known to the world as melodious bugle horn and euphonium artists.

Misses Alberts and Lorena Davis played for the inmates in the wards at the hospital and the 4th Infantry infirmary Saturday. Saturday night they will again play for the boys at both of the army Y buildings at Fort Bliss, and again on Sunday morning at the Sunday school session of the soldiers at the "Y" buildings.

French Officer to Talk.
The speaker for the big men's meeting of the high school boys will be Jean Dougan, a young Frenchman of the 8th French Infantry, who has been long service in the French army and in the trenches. He has just arrived at Camp Cody to assist the American officers in a more thorough training of our boys. Capt. Jean Dougan has a great story for the boys and every high school boy will want to hear him. Admission to the boys' meeting is by tickets only. These tickets can be secured from the men's workers of the boys' committee working in the interest of the Y. M. C. A. war work fund.

Men's Mass Meeting.
The men's mass meeting at the Y. M. C. A. will be the first of the season and promises to be one of the biggest the "Y" has ever had. The meeting at this men's meeting will be Dr. A. M. Howlands, of Buffalo, N. Y. Mr. Howlands is pastor of the Holy Trinity Avenue Presbyterian church of Buffalo, one of the largest Presbyterian churches in the east. Dr. Howlands is visiting the army camps under the auspices of the national war work committee of the Y. M. C. A. His topic

It is also hoped that Capt. Jean Dougan, just over from the trenches, will give a short talk at this meeting.

The "Sammies' Sisters" will also give a concert at the mass men's meeting.

The men's meeting will take place in the Gym at 4:15 Sunday afternoon.

CHAPLAIN COBBY HELPS RAISE Y. M. C. A. MONEY

Camp Cody, Denning, N. M., Nov. 17.—Capt. Jean Cobby, the 12th Infantry (12th Nebraska Infantry) has returned from a trip of several days to Albuquerque, Santa Fe and Las Vegas, N. M., where he and James H. McNary, of El Paso, were holding in the campaign to raise New Mexico's quota of the Y. M. C. A. fund. Capt. Cobby said there have been over $10,000 raised. Albuquerque gave $500; Santa Fe $1000; and Las Vegas, $500.

WILL MAKE ALFALFA MEAL WITH SOTOL SYRUP FLAVOR

The Sotol Production company is erecting a $1500 building at old Fort Bliss, just south of the Globe Hotel, where it will manufacture alfalfa meal for stock food. The new company is capitalized for $150,000, and the controlling interest is owned by Los Angeles people although a number of local business men have a stock in the company, including Claiborne Adams, William R. Gremble, T. D. Love and C. H. Finley. The officers of the company are: W. E. Kelly, president; Claiborne Adams, vice president; O. Allen, secretary and treasurer; and Dr. P. Thatcher, superintendent.

Sotol syrup, which is claimed to be a fine stock food, when mixed with alfalfa meal, will be used in the production of the new meal.

John A. Happer sold the ground for the factory.

Y. M. C. A. FUND 'OVER THE TOP'

Workers Here Make It
Nearly $5000 More Than Quota First Expected.

At the final session of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. campaign workers at Hotel Sheldon Saturday noon C. A. Wise, secretary of the committee, announced that the total amount subscribed in El Paso is $12,102.11. Beginning Saturday morning, the amount was $27,417.25, and $511.18 was turned in by the men's committee by noon. $201.25 by the women's committee, and $100 by the American Smelting and Refining company. A resolution was adopted thanking the women's board, Santa Fe and the soldiers' committee for its splendid work. The men's committee will also turn in a large amount of money, but also the largest amount of money.

Donor Gives $10,000.
"Over the top" with $10,000, $4 percent more than our allotment," is the message we are sending to the national war work committee of the Y. M. C. A. said James H. McNary, chairman of the district of the southwest, which includes Arizona, New Mexico and Texas.
